Cheerful Service in Caroline Order Involvement Apparent at National Jamboree

The presence of the Order of the Arrow was greatly felt at the 2005 National Scout Jamboree. The Order was involved in three major events, namely the NESA/OA show 12³, two American Indian Dance Pow-Wows, and the American Indian Village at Merit Badge Midway.

The Order of the Arrow, in conjunction with the National Eagle Scout Association, put on Twelve Cubed. The show's purpose was to strengthen the values of the twelve points of the Scout Law, along with the three pillars of the Scout Oath. The concept of the show proved to the audience that nothing but the real experience of scouting can teach Scouting's principles to young men. Nawakwa Lodge had a strong presence in the Cast and Crew of Twelve Cubed: Ceremonialists Andrew Pridgen (as the lead, Brian), Jacob Scanlon (as Donovan), and Brandon Ray (as a Cubit) all starred in the show, while Tray Murphy, Ceremonial Team Adviser, worked on the TV/Video crew. We thank our fellow Nawakwa Arrowmen and the rest of the Arrowmen who worked on Twelve Cubed for a great show!

The OA Service Corps was a group of dedicated Arrowmen from all across the country who cheerfully served Scouting at the Jamboree. The Corps included over 150 Arrowmen who provided manpower and assistance to program and support areas at the jamboree. Their greatest accomplishment was organizing water distribution during the arena show. Cases of water bottles were strategically placed all across the arena and water bottles were thrown to thirsty participants and visitors as the first supply ran out. Some of the other services that the Corps provided included: flag ceremonies, youth recreation, VIP guides, food service, and security.

The American Indian Village at Merit Badge Midway was made up of the top ten available dancers in each category of dance from the previous National Order of the Arrow Conference. The purpose of the village was to educate scouts about Native American Indian tribes from all around the country. A series of interactive exhibits explained customs, lifestyles, and activities associated with each region of American Indians. All of the exhibits included a model of a typical dwelling used by the groups of Indians and games played by youngsters to improve life skills. Traditional story-tellers and dancers gave visitors a sense of lifestyles and beliefs of the Indians. Another function of the Indian Village was to provide an opportunity for scouts to earn the Indian Lore Merit Badge in a more in-depth and thorough manner than usually possible. Scouts who were taking the Merit Badge had the opportunity to spend valuable time with counselors, many of whom are themselves American Indians who had experienced many of the things they were teaching for themselves.

My Brothers:

Another year has ended with another great Fellowship. Even though you may think that the new OA year begins in March, it actually begins now. Every action you take to inform your unit or chapter about the OA and every time you show cheerful service, you put Nawakwa Lodge closer to achieving National Quality Honor Lodge once again.

Arrowmen, here is an opportunity for you to make the Order of the Arrow what you want it to be. All you have to do is seize it. Dive deeper into the principles of Brotherhood. Live in Cheerful Service. He who serves his fellows, is of all his fellows greatest. These words have been spoken in one form or another by people such as Jesus Christ, Martin Luther King, and E. Urner Goodman.

I liken you to this story of a fire: A fire is started by the lighting of a single match. If the match does not share it's light with others then it will die. But when the single match shares it's light, then others begin to glow. As the light increases it jumps from one to another, bringing countless others into the light. YOU are that single match and the light you spread is the ideas of Cheerful Service and Brotherhood.

Yours in Service,
Joe Orr

Adviser's Minute

Brethren,

Nawakwa Lodge has had an outstanding year thanks to your cheerful service. You have earned National Quality Lodge Award for the 28th connective year. You hosted a very successful SR-7A Conclave. You donated $1,444.94 to Hurricane Relief Efforts. The Nawakwa Brotherhood of Cheerful Service has grown during the past year. You also held three successful Ordeals and a Fellowship that left our Camp T. Brady Saunders ready for campers and in better shape thanks to your cheerful service. You should take just pride in the accomplishments of the passed year; but there are many challenges and opportunities in the New Year that we must face with the same determination for excellence.

The Carillon service project is December 22nd and 23rd at 7:00 PM. This annual event is our opportunity to give cheerful service to our community. You are the key ingredient in the annual Christmas Pageant. You hold and change the sets for each act of the pageant. This is done outside in partial darkness, so please dress warm with gloves and bring a small flashlight.

The National Order of the Arrow Conference is 29 July through 3 August 2006 at Michigan State University. This is truly a mountain top experience and one that you do not want to miss. Do not hesitate, sign up now and make plans to attend.

Thank you for all that you have done in the past and will do in the future for Scouting and The Order. Your cheerful service has made a difference in the lives you have touched.

May the peace and joy of the holiday season be yours today and throughout the New Year!

In W.W.W.,
Mack Ruffin

Carillon Service Project

December 22 & 23

7:00 PM until 9:00 PM

We need help on both evenings, so please plan to attend and give your support. This is the Lodge's only annual community service project, so please help us get a great turnout.

The Carillon is located at Byrd Park in Richmond.

Please dress warmly, bring a small flashlight, and plan to arrive early for training and possible assistance with crowd control. If you have any questions, please call Mack Ruffin at 804-262-1834.

On Tuesday and Friday night respectively, the Indian Village sponsored two Native American dance Pow-Wows. Both Pow-Wows had over fifty participants from all across the nation. There were dancers from all styles of Native American dance, including Straight, Old, Traditional, Grass, Fancy, and Hoop. The Pow-Wows opened with a Grand Entrance, in which all of the dancers slowly danced into the circle, and awaited the opening ceremony. The opening was followed by an explanation and an "exhibition" of each style of dance. Travis Sheehan was the lead dancer for both Pow-Wows and took part in the Fancy Dance Exhibition. In the middle of the Pow-Wow, the emcee called all of the audience in to the ring for a "Ring Dance". This is a traditional custom of dancers, and it was used to help families in need. At the Jamboree, however, it was used in order to raise money for the Maury Clancy Indian Campership Fund. This charity helps provide funds to those American Indian Scouts needing assistance to attend resident camp. Together, both Pow-Wows raised $2660 for this worthy cause. On Scout said at the Friday Night Pow-Wow, "That was my last dollar, but I want and Indian kid to go to Summer Camp

The Outdoor Adventure Place (TOAP) at Jamboree was an interactive exhibit area detailing outdoor activities. There were an abundance of big ticket items in the TOAP area this year. The Leave No Trace area led by the National Forest Service and The Leave No Trace Organization consisted of hikes through the woods to discover clues and learn about the art of Leave No Trace camping. There were a plethora of obstacle courses that participants wound and weaved their way through. To add to the variety, there were numerous cooking demonstrations and hands on camp set-ups and activities. As always, the TOAP visitors got the opportunity to view the latest in camping gear.

The 2005 National Scout Jamboree was a great experience for both Arrowmen and Scouts alike, and it promises to be even better in 2010. See You at the Hill!

Subscribing

Individuals who are not current members of Nawakwa Lodge may subscribe to the Tom-Tom for an annual fee of $10. Mail your address to the council office (see return address above the mailing label) with a check made out to "OA/BSA." Members receive copies as a part of their yearly dues paid. This service is provided as an effort to keep our brothers who may have moved away in touch with the activities of Nawakwa Lodge.

Nawakwa Welcomes New Supreme Chief of the Fire

An Interview with Brad Nesheim, Scout Executive

Earlier this year, the staff of The Tom-Tom interviewed the new Scout Executive for the Heart of Virginia Council, Brad Nesheim. Mr. Nesheim comes to us from the East Carolina Council, where he was the Scout Executive. Here is what he had to say about his past Scouting career and his plans for the Heart of Virginia Council and Nawakwa Lodge #3.

What do you like most about Scouting? “I believe Scouting is a very important program because it has a positive impact on the lives of the millions of young men who join every year.”

What is your background in Scouting? “As a youth, I was a member of Troop 25 of the Piedmont Council in Gastonia, North Carolina. As an adult, I served as the director of field service for the Atlanta Area Council, then the Scout Executive for the Chattahoochee Council, and the Scout Executive for the East Carolina Council, before coming to serve you.”

Why did you choose to come to the Heart of Virginia Council? “I liked the fact that the council and the city of Richmond are situated close to the ocean and the mountains. Of course, I had heard of the great reputations of the council and your lodge, and I wanted to help them continue to grow myself.”

What are your plans for the council? “I am planning large council-wide events for the 400th anniversary of Virginia, for the 100th anniversary of Scouting, and the 100th anniversary of the council (2013).”

How do you plan to become involved with Nawakwa Lodge #3? “I myself am a Vigil Honor member, and I believe very much in the mission of the Order of the Arrow. I am also very impressed with the way that the Arrowmen of Nawakwa live out this mission. I plan to attend as many Lodge functions as possible, and I wish to become known and available to the council’s Arrowmen.”

What are your initial impressions of the lodge? “I was aware of the great reputation of the Lodge before I came here, but I was still very impressed with the size and membership retention of the Lodge, as well as its competitiveness.”

We certainly welcome Brad to Nawakwa Lodge and wish him well in his new position with our council. If you have yet to meet Brad, please walk up to him and introduce yourself at your earliest convenience. 🦋

Chapter News

Pamunkey Chapter #7

The Chapter 7 website has been changed. We have moved from our old “.org” site to <http://www.pamunkey7.com/> (thanks Tray Murphy for all of your assistance!). We do need members of the chapter to logon and register there. If you have any questions please contact Chapter Chief Andy Spiknall.

Witchindin Chapter #8

Chapter 8 would like to thank everyone who helped out with the camporee. It was a huge success. There were 566 participants (youth and adults). It ran smoothly under the youth leadership of Chris Diming and Vince Milone (and adult leadership of John Allen). The chapter youth were presented this opportunity at a chapter meeting and they answered the challenge with flying colors. By putting the program back into the hands of the youth, we succeeded. The youth are the ones in the chapter that keep things moving forward and continue to keep the chapter strong. The camporee was a huge success because of their unselfish efforts, and the young Scouts in the districts will remember fondly and look for their guidance in the future.

Monacan Chapter #60

Chapter 60 Members, We meet on the Third Tuesday at 7:30 PM at the Wesley Foundation in Farmville. This is the same night as the Roundtable for the District.

To the Members in Chapter 60. At this time take a few minutes to reflect on the past year. On February 18 - 20 was the Klondike Derby. Between June and August we had 4 Members on Camp Staff (between the camps) and 2 attended the National Jamboree, During the 3 Ordeals we welcomed 6 new members and 4 members made Brotherhood. 5 attended the Section Conclave and During the Fall Fellowship we had 9 members attend along with Dave B. obtaining the Vigil Honor. To completed this year we will need you to help with the annual Carillon Service Project on the 22 and 23 of December in Richmond.

Just remember the 2006 Klondike Derby is on Saturday the 21 of January, But the weekend for camping is the 20 - 22 of January. We hope to see you and your unit at the event.

New First Class Rank Requirement

Beginning January 1, 2006, an additional requirement will be added to the requirements for First Class rank in Boy Scouting. Scouts beginning their First Class requirement work after this date must complete the new requirement: “Tell someone who is eligible to join Boy Scouts, or an inactive Boy Scout, about your troop’s activities. Invite him to a troop outing, activity, service project or meeting. Tell him how to join, or encourage the inactive Boy Scout to become active.” Scouts working on First Class requirements prior to this date will have until June 30, 2006 to complete First Class rank without completing the new requirement.

Youth Members Are Getting Ripped-off!!

Wait!! Resist all temptations to scan over this article as you did the rest of this issue. Do one favor for yourself and for your lodge, and read this letter. (It is addressed to you.)

You are a youth member of the Order of the Arrow, and thus you are entitled to all rights and privileges of membership in your own lodge.

BIG DEAL...Now you can wear your flaps on the pockets of your uniform shirts.

But consider this: you pay at least $10 to register in your lodge, and the flaps cost you about $4. What this means bluntly is that you may be getting RIPPED OFF!!!

Let me explain. Flaps are not the only way to benefit from your lodge. Listed below are some of the other ways a Scout can benefit.

- YOU are entitled to run for office either on the chapter or lodge level and help your lodge as you see fit.
- YOU are entitled to attend the Fall Fellowship and Banquet, the Section SR-7A Conclave, and the OA weekends out at camp.
- YOU are entitled to submit articles to this newsletter (it is yours after all). You even have a chance to publish and edit this newsletter as well.
- YOU are entitled to help your chapter decide what your chapter does and assist with or participate in those events.
- YOU are entitled to vote and voice your opinion on such things as dues and other lodge programs.
- YOU are entitled to attend the National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC) held every two years (next in 2006).
- YOU are even entitled the high honor of being an elangomat or assisting in any position during an Ordeal weekend.
- YOU are entitled to talk, work, share, learn, and experience with your brothers.
- YOU are entitled to seal your membership in the Order through the attainment of Brotherhood membership.
- YOU are entitled to and obligated to Cheerful Service to others.

Of all the rights and privileges listed above, how many are you participating in? Are you really getting your money’s worth? And don’t overlook that last one...Cheerful Service is what the Order of the Arrow is all about, and therein lies your greatest reward. So, now do you think that you’re being RIPPED OFF?

Leadership in Service Award

Deadline for 2005
Award is January 31st

The National Office of the Order of the Arrow created the Leadership in Service Award to honor those Arrowmen who provide cheerful service to the council's camps and to the community. Three separate awards can be earned for service performed in each of 2005, 2006, and 2007.

To see more information on the new Leadership in Service Award (including the official order form), please visit http://www.nawakwa.org/N_0503_lsa.htm.

“Adviser”

A poem by Frances Crutchfield

Arrow soaring skyward...
upward as the eagle flies...
Duties can be accomplished well,
if a young man merely tries.
Vision of the yearly program,
plans to delegate its parts,
Ideals encourage accomplishment,
whenever thought or labor starts.
Support, a shadow strongly sensed,
gives strength, then slithers out of sight.
Excellence describes the job;
a best effort is only right.
Recognition shines on deserving youth, safeguards adults in shades of night.

Did you ever wonder how OA weekend work project lists were created? This fine looking bunch of OA adults could be creating just such a list...or they could be swapping tall tales...you decide which.

2006 OA High Adventure Service Project Programs

I am writing to invite you to participate in an Order of the Arrow High Adventure program this summer. Since 1999, the OA has provided fantastic service to Scouting, by providing Arrowmen with the opportunity to build trails and lasting memories at the Philmont Scout Ranch. Arrowmen also have the opportunity to build trails and experience true wilderness adventure at the Northern Tier High Adventure Base in Ely, Minnesota. Both of these opportunities are two-week adventures that bring Scouts like you from all over the country to not only give service to the Philmont back country and Boundary Waters Wilderness Area, but to also gain unparalleled leadership experience and life long friendships. Registration information and additional facts can be found at the NEW OA HIGH ADVENTURE WEBSITE at <http://adventure.oa-bsa.org/>.

In addition to the OA Trail Crew at Philmont and Wilderness Voyage at Northern Tier, the OA is also providing Arrowmen with the opportunity to give service to the Florida Sea Base. Because of a large waiting list last summer, Ocean Adventure has very limited space for 2006, so register now if you would like to participate.

Adventure is awaiting you this summer. Take the step that many brothers before you have. The opportunity to serve Scouting through an OA High Adventure program is only there for you while you are a youth (ages 16-20). Some programs have registration deadlines in early March 2006, so don't hesitate! 🐾

*Gil Rogers
Assistant Director
OA Wilderness Voyage*

2006 NOAC

Michigan State University, Jul 29 – Aug 3

The 2006 National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC) will be held on the Michigan State University campus from July 29 through August 3, 2006. NOAC is the Order's largest national event and is held every two years. NOAC brings Arrowmen together from all lodges to experience brotherhood and receive the best training available. We anticipate the cost being approximately $700.00. This will depend on the conference fee and travel costs. If you want to attend please send a deposit in the amount of $150.00 by January 15, 2006 with a note stating this is for NOAC 2006. Don't miss this opportunity.

As more information is received we will publish it on our web site (<http://www.nawakwa.org/>).

2006 Conclave

Camp Rock Enon, Apr 28 – Apr 30

Conclave 2006, "A Legacy of Service", will be hosted by Shenshawpotoo Lodge at Camp Rock Enon. The dates are April 28 through April 30, 2006. The lodge registration fee is $35.00. Transportation will be provided by chapters.

A conclave is where the lodges of the section (Section SR-7A consists of 6 Virginia lodges) get together for training, competition, and fellowship. Of course, the Saturday night block party is a feast that shouldn't be missed. Conclave also gives OA members the opportunity to visit the different camps across the state.

In order to register, please complete the enclosed registration form (and medical form) and return it to the council office by March 7th. If you wish to pre-order any of the souvenir items (whether or not you plan to attend the event), please do so on the registration form and return it with your payment by January 27th.

Congratulations

Congratulations to the following Arrowmen who became members of the Order by completing the Summer Ordeal in September. These new brothers are eligible for Brotherhood after 10 months of membership has been attained (Fall Ordeal, September 8-10, 2006).

Founder's Award

The nationally recognized Founder's Award was created and presented at NOAC in 1981 as a means to honor and recognize those Arrowmen who have given outstanding service to their lodge. The award is reserved for an Arrowman who demonstrates to fellow Arrowmen that he or she memorializes in his or her everyday life the spirit of achievement as described by founder E. Uner Goodman and cofounder Carroll A. Edson.

James E. West Fellowship

James E. West was the first Chief Scout Executive and served in that position for more than three decades. The West Fellowship award is available for gifts of one-thousand dollars or more to the Council Endowment Fund. This is one of the best ways to ensure that the Heart of Virginia Council can continue to offer outstanding programs and grow to meet the needs of the youth and communities that it serves. Nawakwa Lodge #3 gave its first James E. West Fellowship in 1999. The 2005 recipient of the James E. West Fellowship is Robert E. Tucker.
