

Gunelendam Tepihilleu

“Ponder that which is our purpose”

JUNE 1, 2005

VOL. 2005, ISSUE XTRA

CONCLAVE SHOW A GRAND SUCCESS!

The Cast and Crew of “Ponder That Which Is Our Purpose” consisted of:

The Cast:

Lone Brave.....Phillip Gerber
Allowat Sakima.....Jacob Scanlon
Meteu ..... Alex Cohn
Candidate Management Committee.....
Michael Scipione, Randy Timmerman,
Sean Gerber, Phillip Gerber
Zeke.....David Standley
Travis ..... Andrew Pridgen
Jake ..... Brandon Ray
Justin .....Andy Spicknall
Nutiket..... Tim Herber
Kichkinet.....Andrew Kapelewski

The Crew:

CVC, Shows.....Jacob Scanlon
Shows Lead Adviser ..... Matt Nixon
Scripting & Directors.....
John Gasink, Show Director
Scott Verbeke, Assistant Director
Tray Murphy, Technical Director
Jacob Scanlon
Matt Beach
Sound ..... Patrick Young
“Conclave in Review” &
Audio Production.....Donnie Gladfelter
Video Production ..... John Gasink,
Donnie Gladfelter
Lights ..... Matt Nixon
FX ..... Tray Murphy, Michael Scipione
Stage Managers..... Jan Rusbasen,
Frances Crutchfield, Dave Estes
Stage Crew ..... Dave Estes, Chris Rick,
Phillip Gerber, Sean Gerber, Randy
Timmerman, Chris McIntosh, Michael Unhulz, Luke Walker, Ben Estes
The “Go Get It” Man .....Jim Maher
(THANKS for your midnight trip to Charles City!)
Electricians.... John Slaughter, Tom Nixon,
Steve Humphries
Pyrotechniques Hookup.....Tom Nixon

It was an explosive weekend for the Nawakwa Conclave Show Crew! The rain held off, and from 6:30 PM Saturday night until just about 11, the Cub Camp amphitheatre rocked and rolled.

Zerohour, a local teen band, ran through a playlist of current favorites and original music for over an hour. Then, our own John Hankins told another of his hilarious stories of his youth, keeping the crowd of 800 Arrowmen rolling in the aisles laughing.

Finally, the real show began. After a “callout ceremony”, the principles performed a stylized Preordeal ceremony set to Garth Brook’s “Standing Outside the Fire”, complete with pyrotechniques flaming and flashing around the performers. Designed to get the theme of the weekend, “Ponder That Which Is Our Purpose” across to our brothers, the show was written by several youth and adults in the lodge, and followed four Scouts through a year of their lives as Arrowmen using live acting as well as music, video and special effects. The finale was a Section rededication ceremony to reinforce the principles of the Order to everyone present.

Special thanks go to Jacob Scanlon, Conclave Vice Chief of Shows, Matt Nixon, Shows Adviser, and everyone who worked on the cast and crew.

Many of these showmen – Jacob Scanlon, John Gasink, Tray Murphy, Andrew Pridgen, Brandon Ray, Matt Beach, and Jim Maher - will be working at the National Order of the Arrow’s production of “Twelve Cubed” at the National Boy Scout Jamboree this summer, so if you thought this show was good, go visit them at “the Hill,” and see what can be done with a budget somewhat larger than $2500! 🦋

Tray Murphy
Ceremonial Team Adviser

